Part One - Introduction to Strengthening Families: A Protective Factors Framework
Participant Worksheet for Online Training

1. Name a strength that you bring to your work with children, youth and families:

2. Think about, and jot down, three things that were important to your family as you were growing up:

3. Why should workers avoid focusing primarily on a family's risk factors?