

Group Residential Facility
Program	Location Youth Demographics	Contact Information
Davis Stuart-Alicia McCormick Group Home	Greenbrier Females 13-21 years old	http://www.davis-stuart.org/ (304)647-5577
Level I Provides young people the opportunity to develop in a community based, family environment. There are four homes with a total capacity of 24 residents. Referrals are accepted through the West Virginia Department of Health & Human Resources. Program highlights include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Individualized treatment planning & supportive counseling • Utilization of House Parent model to providing a more consistent family atmosphere • Supportive environment to help residents adjust to maintaining positive and constructive habits in a community setting • Attendance of local public school or an equivalent • Monthly visits with family provided, if applicable • Participation in many community events and activities such as sports, youth groups, and charitable opportunities Capacity of 6 females <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Therapy services provided by local mental health professionals within the community • Residents attend Greenbrier East High School or Eastern Greenbrier Middle School • Opportunity to participate in both school-based and recreational team sports • Ability to attend New River Community and Technical College while maintaining residence in the group home • Access to city of Lewisburg which has many cultural attractions including Greenbrier Valley Theatre, Carnegie Hall, and Trillium Performing Arts center. • Active relationship with local churches and civic organizations such as youth groups, Ruritan and Elks Club • Aftercare services available in Greenbrier County area through Home Base, Inc
Evidenced Based Practices <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Trauma Focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (TF-CBT) 		