

Group Residential Facility
Program	Location Youth Demographics	Contact Information
Davis Stuart-Princeton Group Home	Mercer Males 13-21 years old	http://www.davis-stuart.org/ (304)647-5577
Level I  Provides young people the opportunity to develop in a community based, family environment. There are four homes with a total capacity of 24 residents. Referrals are accepted through the West Virginia Department of Health &amp; Human Resources. Program highlights include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Individualized treatment planning &amp; supportive counseling</li> <li>• Utilization of House Parent model to providing a more consistent family atmosphere</li> <li>• Supportive environment to help residents adjust to maintaining positive and constructive habits in a community setting</li> <li>• Attendance of local public school or an equivalent</li> <li>• Monthly visits with family provided, if applicable</li> <li>• Participation in many community events and activities such as sports, youth groups, and charitable opportunities</li> </ul> Capacity of 6 males <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Therapy services provided by local mental health professionals within the community</li> <li>• Residents attend Princeton High School or Princeton Middle School</li> <li>• GED Program available through Mercer County Workforce Office</li> <li>• Vocational education and night classes available through Princeton High School</li> <li>• Ability to attend Bluefield State College while maintaining residence in the group home</li> <li>• Local library within walking distance</li> <li>• Located near many recreational activities including City Park, four additional community parks, pool, recreation center and numerous recreational programs and activities</li> <li>• Mercer County - Rated among top 100 communities for youth by America's Promise –The Alliance for Youth</li> </ul>
Evidenced Based Practices <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Trauma Focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (TF-CBT)</li> </ul>		