Level II The Youth Academy is a Level II therapeutic residential program with a capacity to serve 22 males and females. More than just a place where kids live, the Youth Academy is a community-based, family-centered program delivering intensive treatment services in the least restrictive environment possible. The Youth Academy serves children ages 12 to 17 and transitioning adults up to age 21. The program is designed to treat children exhibiting behavioral and/or emotional issues that prevent the child from being maintained in their home environment. Children receiving this service are commonly diagnosed with the following but not limited to: ADHD, Depression, Conduct Disorder, Substance Abuse, Adjustment Disorder, Oppositional Defiance Disorder and Disruptive Behavior Disorder. Academy Programs prides itself on its commitment to best serving children and families with the highest intensive treatment needs. In congruence with the Re-Education philosophy, Academy Programs considers education to be a vital component to a child's treatment as it is essential to providing the child with his or her greatest chance at success in life as a child and as an adult. Academy Programs melds the academic and treatment process. Academic success is vital to a child's sense of self and well-being thus allowing the treatment process to succeed at a higher level. It is the philosophy of Academy Programs that children are best served when their family is included in the therapeutic process.
